

WESTERN KAS. WORLD.

OFFICIAL PAPER OF TREGO COUNTY.

W. S. TILTON, Editor.

SATURDAY, MAY 22, 1886.

A meeting of the County Republican Central Committee of Trego county will be held at the Western office, in Wa-Keeney, on Saturday, May 22, 1886, at 9 o'clock p. m.

The matter of selecting delegates to the State and Congressional Convention is to be considered, along with any other business which may be suggested.

W. S. TILTON, chairman.

C. W. MILLER, Chairman.

POPULATING THE COUNTRY.

Governor Martin has a new son. The Topeka Capital says this makes his seventh child—four girls and three boys. Perhaps one of the most startling arrangements of the sinfulness of suspending, by the use of this or that poisonous medicine, the natural procreative forces, is the fact that the families of Senator Ingalls, Senator Plumb, Governor Martin and others of our foremost thinkers are respectable in size and grand in quality. The World assumes that if Americanism is to control America, Americans must do what is right in the direction of producing Americans!

It does not follow that the family who is not able, financially or morally or physically or mentally, ought to be increased to any possible extent. What we aim to say is that the husband and wife who are happily wedded, and who are, at the same time, possessed of good intelligence, will view as a crime the usual studied practices of preventing the birth of children.

Judicial Committee Meeting.

WA-KEENEY, KAN., May 20, 1886.

The committee met in Opera Hall, at 2 p. m., in accordance with the call of C. W. Miller, ex-chairman at the 17th district committee.

There were present, as claimants for seats in the meeting, the following gentlemen: C. W. Miller, of Ellis county; McDowell and H. S. Fish, of Rush county; R. J. McFarland, of Ness county; W. S. Tilton, of Trego county; Jno. Morgan, of Gore county; R. K. Farnsworth, of Lawrence county; Norris Sprigg, of Wichita county; Goodyear, of St. John county; H. A. Clarke, of Wallace county. C. W. Miller was elected chairman of the committee, and W. S. Tilton, secretary.

There was a contest by McDowell and Fish, of Rush, for a seat in the committee. McDowell claimed to have been appointed committee man by the judicial convention at Dodge City, which nominated Strang for judge. Fish did not deny this.

The point was raised that no such thing as a valid 23d district committee had existed prior to the meeting at Wa-Keeney to-day; and that McDowell, being on the same basis in this particular as any other Republican in his county, the committee had the right to make such selection as seemed proper. Fish was seated by a unanimous vote.

On motion of W. S. Tilton, the time for holding the convention was set for August 3, 1886, at 4 o'clock p. m.

The basis of representation was the subject which proved most perplexing. It was moved by W. S. Tilton that the basis be one delegate for each 50 votes and major fraction of 50 votes cast for E. B. Allen for secretary of state in 1884, and one at large for each organized county, with the proviso that if two delegates were conceded to each unorganized county, each organized county should also be allowed an additional delegate. R. J. McFarland offered an amendment, on the basis of one delegate for each 60 votes or fraction of 30, without a delegate at-large, and two delegates from each unorganized county. Mr. Goodyear offered another amendment, placing the basis at 70. By permission, he afterward withdrew this. The amendment offered by Mr. McFarland prevailed.

The discussion of these propositions was animated. The members from the unorganized counties insisted strenuously that they ought to have a representation in the convention to correspond. They were met by the claim that Republican votes were needed on which to base any apportionment beyond the customary concession of one delegate from each county, and that no such basis is in existence.

R. J. McFarland placed Ness City in nomination as the place at which the convention be held. W. S. Tilton offered, as an amendment, that Wa-Keeney be declared the place. The amendment was lost, and the original motion prevailed.

On motion the committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chairman.

C. W. MILLER, Chairman.

W. S. TILTON, Secretary.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

At her home, ten miles southwest of Wa-Keeney, on May 17, 1886, of consumption, L. A., wife of Parry McQuaid, aged 31 years, 9 months and 23 days.

Mrs. McQuaid leaves three children—two girls and one boy—the latter about 32 months old. With her husband, Mrs. McQuaid had braved, since March, 1879, the hardships of pioneer life, making her taking off at this time more than ordinarily sad. Her remains were buried on Tuesday in the Olmsted-Mort cemetery, in the southern part of Graham county, in which neighborhood the family lived for several years.

John Kerne has leased the Hunter ranch, and has had his large herd of cattle from Ellis county taken there. On Wednesday John and his family moved into the Fuller residence building, near the northeast corner of the ranch. We are sorry to lose as near neighbors John and his excellent wife.

The Opinion claims that Oakley will soon have the only stone railway depot west of Wa-Keeney.

E. A. McMath, Esq., of Grainfield, was an interested spectator at the committee meeting.

Captain Hanna went to Denver Thursday night of last week, and reached home last Monday morning.

Maj. Farnsworth goes to Wa-Keeney, next week, as the committee man from Lane to the judicial convention.—(Dighton Herald, 13.)

The heavy frost of last Saturday morning did little or no harm beyond nipping a good many tree leaves and some tender vegetables.

Wm. Dickey is in the business of building cisterns. He has recently built one for Mrs. Benedict and one for Captain Hanna.

The Oakley Opinion of last week copied from the World the address of Mr. T. J. Hineshaw, on Horticulture, before the Farmers' Institute at this place.

Curtis Walker, who came near dying of neuralgia of the head at the residence of G. F. McKnight a few days ago, is able to go about with the assistance of a cane.

Alton Hopkins has built a residence—16x24, 9 foot ceiling—for Charles Lawrence, three miles west of town, by the railroad track. Mr. Lawrence also has a well, eighty-six feet deep.

Mrs. Geo. H. Lawrence went to Denver Thursday night, expecting to remain there during the summer for the relief of her asthma. This season Mrs. Lawrence went to Colorado before she had begun to suffer severely with the trouble.

Geo. D. Brown, of this place, is suffering with an attack of malarial fever, which has come very near resulting fatally. Mr. Brown is one of our most industrious citizens, and we hope to see him around again very soon.

The editor left again last Thursday morning for Wa-Keeney and other points on the U. P. railroad, in the interest of her paper. She has not returned yet, so the "devil" is responsible for all that appears in this issue.—(Scott City Times, 13.)

A. E. Warren, the original representative of the "Wa" in Wa-Keeney, was in town last Saturday. He was on his way home, in Denver, on his return from Hot Springs, Ark., where he had left his family for the benefit of Mrs. Warren's health.

McKnight & Need have traded to Sam Klein business property in Clay Center, Kansas, for his billiard hall property in Wa-Keeney. Sam will continue to operate the billiard hall until June 19, after which date McKnight & Need will have it in charge.

The family of Mr. A. J. Johnson, of the Banner neighborhood, reached Wa-Keeney from the East by Tuesday evening's train. Mr. Johnson, who had been working at his trade as carpenter in Wa-Keeney, accompanied them west on the next day's 1 o'clock train, en route to their place.

Matilda Fletcher lectured, Wednesday evening, in Opera Hall, to a good audience, on The Laws of Happiness. The proceeds were equally divided between herself and the M. E. church. The church netted twenty-four dollars. The lecture was an admirable exposition of some of the more flagrant follies of social life, and those who failed to hear it missed a rare treat.

We were pleased to meet, in our office, as well as elsewhere in town, these gentlemen, who were in attendance at the meeting of the judicial committee: C. W. Miller, of Hays City; Jno. Morgan, of Buffalo Park; Goodyear, of Oakley; R. K. Farnsworth, of Farnsworth, Lane county; R. J. McFarland, of Ness City; Norris Sprigg, of Leoti City; H. A. Clarke, of Wallace; H. S. Fish, of LaCrosse.

Mr. E. L. Drake, an old citizen of Trego county, but for the past two years a citizen of Kansas Center, Rice county, has been in town this week. Besides being associated with his son Elmer in a store at Kansas Center, Mr. Drake is a lightning-rod agent. Elmer, he tells us, was married last March. Mr. Drake will be in Trego county for a few weeks. He has sent for Mrs. Drake to keep him company.

Manufactured by the Woodmanse Windmill Co., Freeport, Ill.

FOR THE MONITOR

We claim great strength, involving the power to resist injury by heavy winds. The reason for this strength is two-fold:

1. The mill is as strong, on general principles, as any other.

2. The mill is vaneless, thus doing away with much of the friction inseparable from the vane class of mills.

FOR THE WOODMANSE

We say unhesitatingly that he who wants a vane mill can do no better.
